

Jerry E. Camfield, Jr
April 13, 1958 – April 6, 2024

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of our beloved father, grandfather, husband, brother, son and friend Jerry Camfield. Jerry unexpectedly left us on April 6, 2024. He was 65 years old.

Jerry lived a life filled with passion, adventure, and love. Jerry's love for motorcycles was legendary, and the sound of his Harley-Davidson rumbling down the road was a familiar and comforting presence in our lives.

Jerry was a devoted husband to his current wife Annette, whom he cherished deeply. Together, they shared many beautiful moments and created a warm and loving home for their family. Jerry's love for his late wife, Melanie, and their daughter, Amy, who tragically passed away 22 years ago, remained a constant presence in his heart. Their memories were cherished and kept alive through stories and photographs shared with his grandchildren.

As a grandfather, Papa Jerry was a pillar of support and encouragement. He never missed a single sporting event, school concert, or milestone in his grandchildren's lives. His presence on the sidelines, cheering them on with boundless pride, will be deeply missed. Jerry's kindness, warmth, and unwavering love touched the lives of all who knew him. His legacy of love, laughter, and unforgettable motorcycle rides will continue to live on in the hearts of his family and friends.

Jerry was born April 13, 1958, in Decatur, IL the son of Jerry and Sandra (Buckley) Camfield Sr. HE was a retired Journeyman Electrician from Bodine Electric. He was a member of the IBEW Local #146.
