She was preceded in death by her parents.

Donna's greatest joy in life was being a mother/grandmother. Her grandchildren were truly her world, and every smile, laugh, and milestone was cherished deeply in her heart. She built her life around making sure her husband, children, grandchildren, siblings, nephews, friends, and all those she came around always knew just how loved they were.

A natural hostess, Donna had a way of bringing people together and making them feel at home, whether they lived just down the street or many miles away. Her selfless spirit and warm presence left everyone she met feel cared for, valued and embraced.

Donna's legacy is one of unconditional love, compassion, and generosity. She was a remarkable woman who gave so much of herself to others and never asked for anything in return. Her absence will leave an unfillable void in the hearts of her family and friends.

She will be remembered always and missed beyond measure.

Jeff and the family would like to request that no pictures or videos of Donna's visitation or service be posted on any social media. Any photos or videos of the proceedings shall be kept for personal use only. We sincerely hope that everyone involved will respect Donna's visitation and the families request. If Jeff sees or hears of any post of the funeral on social media, he will be on your doorstep to take it up with you.
